

International Souris River Board

Roles and responsibilities of key players

International Joint Commission

Issues directives to the board
Appoints members to the board

International Souris River Board

Members, half each from Canada and the United States (members nominated by governments)

Oversees, monitors and ensures compliance with apportionment measures for the waters of the Souris River

Investigates and reports on water requirements and uses as they impact the transboundary waters of the Souris River basin

Assists in the implementation and review of the Joint Water Quality Monitoring Program pursuant to the 1989 Canada-United States Agreement for Water Supply and Flood Control in the Souris River Basin

Performs an oversight function for flood forecasting and operations in cooperation with the designated entities

Communicates to the public, Indigenous communities, and stakeholders

Supported by binational committees, support staff, and IJC liaisons

